SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1886.

Full Returns.

Advises from Augusta state that full returns from every city, town and plantation in the State give Bodwell 14,000 plurality over Edwards; the Congressional plurality 17,000; and that 145 Republicans and 35 Democrats are elected to the Legislature. Good enough!

Mr. Bodwell carried his own town by a majority of 345, and Col. Edwards' town by 51.

Boutelle gets 1,359 plurality in his Congressional district and is a happy man. The people evidently believe in Boutelle — But Times.

A great Republican majority and five or six additional Republican Congressmen is the prediction. Congressman McKinley makes about the election to be held in Ohio in November.

The Democratic papers are still trying to explain the Maine election so as to hide their overwhelming defeat, but as yet they have made but little headway. The figures are too large.

The canvass in Iowa is developing the fact that Cleveland's pension veterans are driving the Democratic ex-soldiers into the Republican ranks again, from which some of them have strayed for a few years past.

The Republican plurality in Maine is shaking slowly — New York World.

The sinking in the Republican plurality is only found in the columns of Democratic newspapers. Full returns give Mr. Bodwell 14,000 plurality.

What has become of St. John? He has not been heard from since he left this State in disgust because toward the close of his tour it fifty dollars a night were not paid in advance. When he came to Maine to "sunsh" the Republican party he took too large a contract.

There is trouble among the faithful at Albany. The anti-Manning faction have held county and congressional conventions and placed a complete ticket in the field. The platform denounces in severe terms the frauds perpetrated by the Democratic machine in the Albany primaries.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat has made an enigma of the delegates to the Republican State Convention in Ohio, Iowa, Texas, Michigan, Illinois, Missouri, Indiana and Wisconsin as regards Presidential preferences which shows that Mr. Blaine leads all the Republicans combined, more than two to one.

One Congressional District in Louis and the Collector of Internal Revenue, the Deputy Collector, an Assistant Postmaster and a United States Marshal all took an active part in the convention. What has become of that famous proclamation from President Cleveland to office holders?

The Republican State Central Committee of Kansas under date of Sept. 11th requests Representative Boutelle to take part in the campaign in that State, saying: "We earnestly invite you to permit this committee to arrange some appointments for speeches at several prominent points in Kansas where most agreeable to you."

The Washington correspondent of the New York World referring to the numerous "relatives" who are "taken care of" under this Administration names a few and then adds that there "are hosts of others, creatures of influence and no merit to speak of." As a rule, however, the Democratic organs have very little to say about neopism just now. It is a very delicate subject for them to refer to.

When a Philadelphia Mugwump paper finds everything in the Republican victory of Maine intolerable except the election of Mr. Reed, and couples the declaration with a slur at Mr. Boutelle, the latter has reason to feel complimented by the hostility of the crowd of political malcontents who were hoping for a Republican disaster in "Blaine's State" last Monday.

It would seem from the following paragraph in the Portland Express that Collector Redman's "holiday" lasted through the campaign. "Wonder if Internal Revenue Collector Redman has discovered that the campaign has closed? He has been absent from his office several days to the inconvenience of persons who wished to transact business with the department. Yesterday a sign announced that the Collector would be in Thursday, but up to the present time he has not shown up."

If it is in order we would suggest to the Democracy of Maine the desirability of organizing. It must be getting monotonous to the Republican managers down that we have no trained opposition — Boston Globe.

This looks like a reflection on Chairman Brown. When Brown was first elected to his present position the Commercial hailed him with delight as a man eminently qualified to lead the Democratic hosts to victory in 1886. He only fell some 14,000 votes short of fulfilling the Commercial's prediction.

The Navy Department is to be compensated for special efforts to take the ironclad out of politics. Their management in this respect has too often caused great scandal in the past — Portland Journal.

In the light of recent events it would seem that the Journal is either very ignorant concerning what is going on or is making a very cheap bid to curry favor with the Democratic press. The Navy yard in this State was worked by the Administration for all it was worth in the recent election and now the same thing is to be done in Portland.

The Commercial at last declares that so far as it was concerned none of the Democratic candidates were sacrificed for Mr. Brown. If it was equally loyal to all of course no significance can be attached to its remark that Mr. Brown who received its support "in ordinary every day type" was elected, a remark intended to convey the impression that it was largely instrumental in bringing about that result. This leaves our contemporary just where it was before when a prominent member of the Bangor Democracy declared that it was of no earthly use to the party. The fact is Brown's election was brought about by the most persistent misrepresentation and the readiness of the Democrats to trade any part or the whole of their ticket even for a vote for Sheriff. In Bangor they stood ready and eager to sacrifice any other candidate for this office.

At a recent speech in New Hampshire, Senator Blair said: "The result in Maine, as had been foreshadowed by a later despatch, was no more favorable than he had expected. The campaign there had been conducted in a most extraordinary and excellent manner. It had been carried on under the immediate supervision of James G. Blaine. (Great applause.) The masterly hand and the eloquent voice of Mr. Blaine had been a great power in the canvass throughout the State. (Continued applause.) There is no man but who knows that the contest just closed in Maine was, in reality, the first gun in the next Presidential campaign. That gun was well loaded, and the manner in which it was fired, and the result which followed proved beyond question that the triumph achieved is the sure precursor of a great Republican victory in the Nation in 1888. (Applause.) The great questions discussed in Maine are identically those that will be presented two years hence. They were the tariff, temperance, a national but conservative policy and a free blot in the North and in the South. There is the verdict of the people. It will be received by the country at large as a sure vindication of the course of events, as much so as if the election had really occurred in September, 1888. I took part in the canvass there, feeling that it was about the same as our own. The result is one that will make ours not one of nervous anxiety but one of joyful and confident work."

Waldo County.

A correspondent writes us at the Republicans of Waldo County elect five of the seven Representatives, the same number as two years ago; one Senator, one County Commissioner and Clerk of the Courts. The plurality for Edwards is 55, Milliken, for Congress, gets 111 plurality. But for the unfortunate local contest in Waldo the whole Republican field would have been elected by several hundred plurality.

Manifesting Their Alarm.

(Philadelphia North American) The anxiety of the Mugwump and pseudo-independent "less-ifs" in Blaine's district is rather comical. In one breath they boast of his "leadership" and in the next they denounce him as a "political charlatan" and a "demagogue." The Xth and Xth Districts (Walton and the 1st District (Frederick) can also be put into the Republican column under existing conditions. If Illinois does not add a free or four its Republican delegation will be increased by one. The news has been received from Chicago that that city will send back four Republicans, a gain of two in the Illinois delegation. It is understood that the dissensions which resulted in Waldo have not been fully settled, and that the fall Republican strength will be polled. The 11th District (Lawler's) is almost doubtful. The split in the Indianapolis district is sure to result in a Republican victory unless the discussions are resolved by November. The 12th District, which is in an equally bad condition, from a Democratic point of view. His 3,000 majority of two years ago cannot stand a division on the Xth and Xth Districts. News About the Capital.

Outrages on Missionaries in China.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17. Minister Denby, of the British Embassy, has reported to the Secretary of State the recent outrages. A夫人 and wife and Dr. James Fulton, missionaries of the American Presbyterian Board, at Kwai Ping, 400 miles south of Canton, where, May 12, the mission property was burnt and the Fulton's forced to flee for their lives. Consul Seymour is pressing a demand for $3,500 in this case. Mr. Denby also tells of another outrage of more recent date on Sunday, Aug. 12, when a number of the men connected with the American Episcopal Mission Hotel at Chung King were slain and only one lady present.

A man broke down the gates and threw stones at the lady, who fell, and cut her index finger. She was otherwise unharmed about the head and arms. Complaints were made to the officials but the Chinese were unresponsive. "There is a serious case," writes Mr. Denby, "but it is not a test case. It grew, as all our exits in China do, out of troubles in the United States."

At 11 o'clock last night, a man attacked a mission priest at Chunching and destroyed it. Minister Denby filed a protest.

The Alaska Seal Fishing violations.

Special Agent Tingle, of the Treasury Department, has been sent to the coast of Alaska. He left Alaska shortly after the seizures of foreign seals had been made by Capt. Abbe. In the case of the British vessel Overlord, Mr. Tingle says that the crew had been paid $1,000 for each seal along the shores of the St. Lawrence.

These predatory sealers, he says, made a practice of stealing ashore under cover of fog and cutting seals, which are then sent to the boats and conveyed on board ship to be skinned.

Large numbers of seals are shot in the sea and this practice is particularly destructive from the fact that three out of four seals shot are lost. In this case, he says, 1,000 seals can be recovered. Notwithstanding these losses, the agent says seal life is increasing with great rapidity. The agent is not inclined to discuss the legality of the seizures, but he does not believe that a law officer has been sent from San Francisco to assist in the prosecution of the cases before the St. Lawrence court.
